4.4 Either of the two organizations shall respond to all reasonable requests for information from the other provided that the information requested is in the public domain and provided that meeting the request does not place an unreasonable burden on the organization's resources.

4.5 Each organization shall provide material that it provides to its own members (journals, newsletter, discussion papers, meetings proceedings, etc.) to the other organization, including permission that the other organization may republish such information with appropriate attribution.

6. Guest Speakers at Conferences

- 6.1 Either of the organizations may, from time to time, invite guest speakers from the other organization to make a presentation at one of its meetings or conferences.
- 6.2 The number of guest speakers at any one event shall exceed one only in exceptional circumstances.
- 6.3 The host organization shall waive the registration fee for such guest speaker. No honorarium shall be paid nor shall travel expenses be paid by the host organization.
- 6.4 Either organization shall, at the request of the other, assist with the identification of speakers for meetings and conferences.

7. Group Travel Arrangements

Any organization may wish to make group travel arrangements for its members who wish to attend an event organized by the other. In these circumstances, the host organization shall provide reasonable assistance by way of the provision of local information and facilitating local contacts. The costs of such group travel arrangements shall not be the responsibility of the host organization.

8. Review

Generally, this Memorandum of Understanding shall be reviewed by SARQA and SQA after three years of operation, modified as necessary to improve it and a new Memorandum agreed.
